Dr. Jami M. Nininger,

DNP, RN, CNE

Jami M. Nininger, DNP, RN, CNE, is an experienced nurse educator, consultant, and academic leader with more than three decades of experience in nursing practice and higher education. Her areas of expertise include curriculum design, faculty development, accreditation, program assessment, evidence-based teaching, and student success strategies. Dr. Nininger is a published author and national presenter committed to advancing excellence in nursing education and workforce preparation.

OR

Dr. Jami M. Nininger, DNP, RN, CNE, is a nurse educator, consultant, and former academic administrator with more than 30 years of experience in nursing practice, nursing education, and academic leadership. Her expertise includes curriculum development, accreditation, program evaluation, faculty development, online and hybrid learning, clinical judgment, NCLEX readiness, and evidence-based teaching practices. Throughout her career, she has led strategic initiatives to improve student success, strengthen program outcomes, support faculty excellence, and advance innovation in nursing education. Dr. Nininger is a published author, national presenter, and Quality Matters Master Reviewer whose work focuses on preparing the next generation of nurses through high-quality, learner-centered education.