

Name: "The Power of YOU"

Educational Outcome: Participants will initiate action on their leadership training.

In this very interactive and fun workshop you will learn to step into your authentic power and move your goals into action. This involves moving you from your left brain to your right brain to your heart through a number of exercises that take you out of your comfort zone. Participants walk away ready to begin executing.

Biography

Rosie Zepeda, M.Ed., has taken her education on human development, communication, linguistics, training in cognitive science, and many years in the private sector, to create unique programs that train audiences to show up and succeed authentically, while achieving results. Some of her most popular workshops are: "The Power of Negotiation," "Difficult Conversations," and "Effective Communication."

She has provided training and consulting for Hewlett Packard, San Jose State University, IBM, AMD, Intel, Comerica Bank, Society of Hispanic Professional Engineers, and numerous education institutions.